1-2	Bone dry cup, plate or tile, in a lighter colored clay.
1	Bisque tile of a lighter color clay, approx. 5 inches square.
1 minimum but any number of ...	Underglaze colors.	I use Amaco underglazes but any kind is fine. If they are purchasing underglazes for the first time, I'd suggest getting a black (I use the Amaco Jet Black as it has no cobalt in it), red, yellow, blue, green, orange, brown and pink for starters, but really anything depending on what they think they'll be drawing.
1	Pencil	This should be a wood pencil not a mechanical pencil as we'll use it for drawing on paper and clay. If it's a mechanical pencil it will likely scratch the clay. (but we do also need a mechanical pencil, see below)
1	Eraser
1	Sketchbook or about 5 pages to draw on.
2-5	Highlighters or markers in different colors
2	Containers for water
2	Sponges
2	Sewing needles	I buy cheap ones from the dollar store.

1	Mechanical pencil	I buy cheap ones from the dollar store.
1	Masking tape
1	Roll of toilet paper
1	Liquid wax resist	I use Plainsman Reed Wax which you can find here: https://plainsmanclays.com/store/index.php?type=23&xyz=1 Students can source local wax as well, so long as it's latex free. I believe that this: https://www.theceramicshop.com/product/10104/wax-on-resist-gallon/ is a similar wax found in the USA, but I haven't personally tried it yet. Archie Bray also sells a Reed wax that is quite similar. https://archiebrayclay.com/products/reed-wax/?sku=Wax-P
1	Small sponge/foam brush	Dollar Store
5-10	Paint brushes in various small to med sizes.	Can buy a dollar store package or invest in more pricey ones if they like. I use dollar store ones.
